FAQ's:

1. How are new artists/artisans for the Tour selected?

Your submission is reviewed by the selection committee. If you meet the criteria then you will be interviewed in your home/studio by one or two full members during the months of February. Full members then meet to review the information collected, and the selection is made. We aim to have a mix of both fine craft and fine art participants.

2. When can I expect a response regarding my submission?

In February.

3. What is a probationary year?

This is the first year that an applicant participates. At the end of the Tour the other members decide whether an applicant will be invited to become a full member. Quality and presentation of their work is of primary concern and participation in the running of the tour is important.

4. Once I have been juried into the Tour, may I switch to showing in another medium?

Your acceptance into the Tour is based on the medium in which you have been juried. If at any time you switch to another medium, you are required to re-apply to the Tour.

5. How much time will I be expected to contribute to help run the Tour?

On average, 1 day a month. However, in some cases this takes place over several days at a particular time during the year, depending on the requirements of the job.

6. Is there an annual fee for participating in the Tour?

Yes, it is currently $250. If there is a surplus it is refunded to members. We use the funds mainly for advertising and publicity.

7. How many artists/artisans are included in the Tour annually?

We like to keep the number of participants at approximately 20-26. Artists/artisans are permitted to take a sabbatical year after two years. This creates spaces for new participants to join the tour. We typically have 4-6 new artists/artisans every year.

8. Who can be a guest artist/artisan?

A guest artist/artisan is someone residing in the Outaouais who is invited to join the tour for one year. We give priority to those who come from regions that are not well served by galleries and art tours in their region. Guest artists/artisans are expected to complete and submit the standard application form. They are reviewed at the same time as other applicants.

9. In the criteria for selecting successful applicants, is the choice of medium considered?

Yes, it most definitely is; we want to offer a variety of media on the Tour.

10. How are decisions that affect Tour members made?

We have a president and vice-president to overview the tour. Everyone takes on a role in ensuring that the tour is well-run. Many committees are made up of several members, some are run solo. Group meetings are held to a minimum (about 4) and everyone votes on issues that arise. Attendance at these meetings is mandatory.

11. When is the Tour in 2022?

To be confirmed. It is usually held on the last weekend of September and first of October.

We also have fun! Between the two weekends of the Tour we hold “The Tour of Tours” in which we travel caravan-style from one studio to the next, viewing each other’s work.

Thank you for considering joining us. We look forward to receiving your application.
